On the surface, better design and more decoration appear unnecessary, but there are subtle connections between the form-built ergonomic sofa, the sofa, and the sofa. So, "less is more" is the key to making it look and feel better. The difference between better and better decoration is that a small dose can be used to meet the ever-changing needs. How to use large pieces of furniture or better cannot be reversed easily. You need to have a new design philosophy, which is not just the simple dividing of elements or design, but a complete idea and long-range design for experience.

IMAGINATION CREATES CONCEPT

"Design" is a design by Cameron Design, founded by Dorian. The theme is the residence of Carlo Quattrone - residence of "Sea and the City".

"The residence of Carlo Quattrone" is a concept whereby the designer turns a simple concept into a more sophisticated design, such that everyone who steps into the residence can feel the emotion of modernity, luxury, elegance, and safety comfort.

FASHION IN RESIDENCE

Since Wright is the "new frame" for Carlo Quattrone, atmosphere in the house has to be fashionable, as well as suitable to the fashion design. It is, walking or home during the day and going out at night. Therefore, the designer thinks, for meeting needs, giving materials which give life and light. The designer's special architectural skills between the living room and the kitchen will give another meaning to the facts, gathering under the light, the walls also has a space in creating effect. You will find patterns everywhere just in fashion, such as elegant and soft, elegant and soft, and elegant design, success in the last room, perfectly suited to Carlo Quattrone, as a trend leader.

EXPRESSING INDIVIDUALITY IN DETAIL

The details in Wright, no matter how subtle, can be seen. It is in the theme color for the living room, meeting a sense of modernity and calm. Living areas, such as the meeting room, are treated in darker colors. For example, the meeting room has dark wood-colored wallpaper, which gives a sense of modernity and calm.

Accessories provide a finishing touch to the "modern" unique style. The blue carpet adds its inspiration from 15th-century blue and white porcelain, with patterns of all colors, highlighting the "modern" extraordinary style. ■
